Light Up the Night/Maker's Market

Voyagers and Pathfinders spend weeks decorating our church windows, painting the Christmas story in pictures. On the evening of December 10th, we revealed the paintings by lighting up the inside of the church while our children sang Christmas carols outside. We made freshly baked waffles, had warming fires, and even got a visit from St. Nicholas after reading his origin story. Some children explored entrepreneurship and crafted or baked for this event. They set up their own little European Christmas market-style sale in our parking lot. We had book binders, food vendors, ornament makers, 3D printed crafts, warming pillows, home made soaps, bead work, and more. It was a delight to see our children being so creative and talented. Both young and old enjoyed a wonderful wintery evening at Light of Christ. See page 5 for more photos.

Cheater Readers Book Club

Many years ago, we started a book club of LOC members and met in one another's homes monthly, enjoying fellowship and discussions of lots of interesting books. We called ourselves "The Cheater Readers" since most of us needed some magnifying help with our middle aging eyes! Some of our members have passed or moved away, and some have transferred to other churches, but we continue to be great friends.

Moving into 2026, as it is getting to be harder for all of us to host or navigate to our homes, we have arranged to meet in the Living Room at LOC on the second Thursday of each month at 2:00 PM. We would love to have new book lovers join us!

Here's the line-up for Book Club starting January 8th, 2:00 PM at Light of Christ:

- ◇ January 8: Dear Mrs. Bird by AJ Pearce
- ◇ February 12: When the Dandelions Sing by James J Hill
- ◇ March 12: When Crickets Cry by Charles Martin

Bring your own beverage and snack. Invite a friend! Bring your book suggestions for future months, books we can borrow through Delano's Great Regional or Hennepin County libraries. We will not meet in June, July, or August, unless one of us wants to have a summer potluck, no book involved. Contact Sue Fink if any questions.

Maker's Market

market

This year's Christmas program was a hit. 72 children from Explorers, Voyagers, and Pathfinders amazed our congregation with their acting skills, outstanding strong voices in solo and choir singing parts, as well as confident speaking roles. The children presented the historical moment and circumstances of Jesus' birth in an interactive and musical kind of way. For weeks they practiced their lines and their acting roles. In the end it all came together beautifully, and they left the sanctuary being applauded loudly and that for good reasons. We are beyond proud of the accomplishments of our youth!

CHILDREN, YOUTH & FAMILY NEWS

Voyagers and Pathfinders spread joy by sharing their beautiful voices with the residents of The Legacy and The Estates nursing homes. They sang the Christmas carols from this year's Christmas program on December 17th.

We rented the Emagine Movie Theater for a private showing of the powerful and inspirational animated movie of DAVID. On December 19th we gathered with 91 people, held a devotional, and enjoyed a great retelling of the history of a man after God's own heart, with snacks and fellowship. It was another wonderful event in our movie series.
